“ Shirley-I read about your mother's death in the OXFORD EAGLE. You and your family are in my prayers. My mother, Opal Bland Harrison was your mother's first cousin. They corresponded for years before my mother's death in October, 2008. My mother loved her so much and talked about how much fun they had growing up together. I have often thought about your mother, even though I didn't know her, I felt like I did from listening to Mom talk about her and reading many of the letters she wrote to Mom.

“ Sorry for the lost of your loved one. The bible gives us hope for our dead loved ones. John 5:28 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29.and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment".
