

Beatrice Lott

April 3, 1946 - January 15, 2020

Beatrice Lott (73) of Leesburg, FL passed away in her home January 15, 2020. She was born April 3, 1946 in Toledo, Ohio.

Beatrice is survived by her son Jonathan Wayne Cousino of Leesburg, FL, her son James Leroy Cousino (Tanya) of Wildwood, FL, her daughter Dawn Louise Collop of Winter Garden, FL, her daughter Beverly Ann Loika of Leesburg, FL, her son Richard Raymond Cole of Webster, FL and her daughter Tonia Lynn Daniels of Leesburg, FL. She was also greatly blessed with 19 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brothers, Wayne, Randy, Dennis, Gene and Gary and her sisters, Shari, Karen and Mary. She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Marilyn.

Beatrice was described as the "backbone" or the "glue" of the family. Earlier, she was a valuable asset in the family business. Later, she was the asset, "Maw/Gigi," who enjoyed her family, be it watching Hallmark movie reruns with them or heading out to the next garage sale. She also loved her Bingo and participated in it whenever she could. She will be sorely missed.

There will be a memorial service celebrating her life at Beyers Funeral Home Chapel at 1123 W. Main St in Leesburg, FL on Friday, January 24 at 2:00 PM. Guests are encouraged to dress casually for the celebration.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ *Bea has been a long time member of Coachwood Colony. She has been involved over the years in many different events. She will be especially missed on Thursdays at Bingo. A memorial will be made to Coachwood Cares in her name. Our condolences to her family that meant so very much to her.
Coachwood Colony Social Club.*

Mary Hamann - January 21, 2020 at 06:25 PM