“ Sherry and Marilyn and families: While we are not related by blood I truly feel your pain in the loss of your mother because of your sharing so much of her family history related to my great-Uncle Oliver T. Cason. The pictures you shared of their family visits to my Grandmother, Aquilla J. Cason (Oliver's Sister) Malone's. Her wonderful memories which you Sherry shared with me really touched my heart and soul. She was quite a beautiful young lady and I can see her mother in her also. Praise God She was Blessed with such a long life and had a wonderful opportunity to enjoy her children and their children down through the generations to come after her. May God Comfort each and everyone of you during this difficult time of parting. But know that while she loved and treasured each and everyone of you she would not come back to this world of sin and heartache and have to leave her heavenly home and Her Lord And Saviour. She has heard her Lord's "Well done thou good and faithful servant you have finished the course I set for you to run. Enter into your Eternal Rest." She has received "Her Crown Of Righteousness" promised to all those who perservere to the end of their days given unto them on this Earth. I wish I could have gotten know her in life but I will one day see her in her heavenly home. Still look forward to someday getting to see you in person and share some more of our joint family history. Love to All, Evelyne Taylor Henderson; Daughter of Dorothy Elizabeth Malone (Taylor). Granddaughter of Aquilla Janette Cason (Malone) & Benjamin Darley Malone, Sr.

“ Dear Marilyn and Perry, Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your mother and mother-in-law. I know she was her own unique, one-of-a-kind woman; however, I see a resemblance between you and your mom, Marilyn. I'm glad that she had specific instructions with regard to what her wishes were and that you and your sister saw that they were implemented. Your Mom certainly led a long and full life and has left quite a legacy behind by way of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Love, Barbara
