“ I'm going to really miss my close friend since 1950. We went to grade school and high school together; we worked together at Miller Brewing Company; we were "best man" at each other's weddings; we spent many enjoyable times socially. I'm sorry I won't get to see him anymore, but, am glad that he no longer has to battle the debilitating Parkinsons Disease. To his wife Ruth, I have my greatest admiration for her many years as Bernie's soulmate and caretaker during his illness.
