

Bernard Corsetti

February 8, 2011

Obituary of Bernard Corsetti

Bernard John Corsetti, 69 of Leesburg, Florida passed away Tuesday, February 8, 2011 at Leesburg Regional Medical Center. He was born in Woburn, MA and attended Woborn School, graduating with the Class of 1958. He later attended Lowell Technological Institute majoring in electrical engineering as a member of the USAF ROTC program.

Bernie is survived by his wife Karen Schopen originally from Waltham, MA, his brother

Carmen and wife Janet of Andover, MA, a sister Rachelle and Alexender of Avola, AZ.

Additionally he is leaving behind four sisters in law, 4 brothers in law and ten nieces and nephews.

His life's hobbies included, an accomplished musician, custom knife making, he built custom fishing rods for fresh and deep sea fishing, custom golf clubs, and an avid reader of science fiction novels. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Services

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Bernard Corsetti

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ I was saddened to hear of Bernard's passing. I did not have the pleasure of meeting him however being friends with and working so closely with Carmen over the years in the Lions Club I can only imagine how personal and compassionate Bernard was with his many talents. My prayers & thoughts are with you during this most difficult time.

Bryan Murphy - Massachusetts - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM