“ John and Betti enjoyed sharing memories of working together at Disney, for the Carpenter's Union. John said, Betti could keep up and work as hard as any of the men. Betti also would often join us on our back porch, if we were sitting out, when she drove by. Betti was a great asset to the Community Club's food pantry, unloading the truck and assisting in bagging the groceries, for those in need. She will be missed.

May the family find comfort in their memories

Betti always looked for the brighter side of everything. She dealt with her life's daily needs solving whatever obstacle she had to overcome. We've remained friends for over 45 years. We jokingly laughed about sitting in our rocking chairs on the porch when we got older. She loved being outdoors and enjoying nature. She was a good friend that I will miss. Betti always cared deeply for the people she worked with, was friends with, and her family. She loved her children and grandchildren. She lived her life on her terms and she didn't sweat the small stuff.
