Obituary of Betty Mancuso

Betty McKay Mancuso, wonderful and beloved mother, aunt and friend, was welcomed by a host of angels into the presence of our Lord and Savior on Sunday , October 13th.

Betty was born on August 20, 1921 in Pittsfield, Massachusetts and resided in North Adams and Williamstown Ma. until her retirement. She was employed by New England Telephone Company all of her working years, retiring in 1980. She lived in Lake Wales and Lady Lake Florida before settling in Leesburg 25 years ago.

She was a long-time member of First Baptist Church of North Adams, Ma. and of First Presbyterian Church of Leesburg since moving there.

Betty has been reunited in heaven with her mother and father, Elva G and George D McKay, her sisters Ruth Baker and Elva Lewis, and her dearly loved husband Joseph Haslam.

In good health until a brief illness began in September, she enjoyed a fulfilling life in her beautiful home with her son George. A kind and loving woman, she would always offer encouragement and support to her many friends and family members.

Left behind to honor her memory are her son George Bailey, her very special niece and husband, Suzanne and David Fierro, niece Brenda Gable, nephew Dwight Baker, and cousins Carol Dolan, Judy McNamara, and Heather Irwin.

A memorial celebration will be held on October 28th at the chapel of East Lawn Cemetery in Williamstown, Ma and burial will follow in the family plot there.
