“ Bev is GREATLY LOVED as the Best Next-Door Neighbor EVER and Dear Friend. She and I would walk 3 miles most days during the summers at Fine Lake in MI. Bev wanted to walk early morning (7am) and I did so because I so enjoyed our chatting time together. She made the BEST chicken salad and each time I prepare it, it gets rave reviews. Bev gets full credit as my recipe cards that I share are entitled Bev's Chicken Salad. I LOVE YOU BEV. I'll miss your soft voice. Janet & Bob Damon 💔

Bev and Bernie were wonderful neighbors when we moved to Fine Lake in 1990. I still have their patio table and chairs, which we got when they move from here. My husband, Burrel, and I purchased outdoor material and redid the chairs, and they are still in perfect condition. I think of them every time we are outdoors on our deck here at Fine Lake. Bob & Janet Damon, Keith and Julie Sutton, Bev and Bernie, and my late husband, Burrel and I, along with other neighbors had a number of get together's, including Pontoon boat tie up picnics, during the summer months, here at Fine Lake. Our small neighborhood, here on Acorn Cove Trail, in Battle Creek MI. has been a wonderful place to spend our retirement, and Bev and Bernie certainly added to that special time we all shared. My loving thoughts and prayers go out to Bernie and all the family, and Bev will always be remembered as one of my best neighbors ever. Lovingly, Deanna Stults
