“ It is with great sadness we learned of Bill's passing. Bill was with us from the beginning, when we started with only one product and was our longest standing distributor. Aside from the personal relationships Bill developed with the staff members he interacted with, Ron and Sherry will miss Bill's personal friendship. Our thoughts and prayers are with Julie and Caroline and the rest of the family. Be strong. ”

“ I was shocked to read of Bill's death on the Daily Commercial website this morning. Kelly and I are deeply saddened and our prayers are with Julie and the rest of the family. I smile every time I think of Bill, and I've thought about him often in between times when I've run into him somewhere, because it seems like he always had a smile on his face. Kelly and I appreciate everything Bill and Julie did for us, and we mean everything. They were among the first people we met in Leesburg and they went out of their way to welcome us and make sure that we had a good first impression of the area and its people. Please let us know if we can be of any assistance to the family in your time of grief.
