He was important to me in the 70"s as a father figure and mentor when I spent a summer working with him in W.Va. when I needed stability in my life. “Shirley, Cindy, Sandy, Bill, Scott, and family... Being a person who usually has a lot to say, I am finding a hard time finding the right words to say to you. Billy was a huge life. He was a very nice and kind man. The day I met him and Shirley, also referred to as dad and mom, he welcomed me with open arms. He was such a joy to know. I only wish I had a better chance to do so. To know Billy was to love him. And boy how he loved his family. As I know his family loved him. Sandy, would always tell me of the things they had planned for family reunions and trips and what nots. All the kids, well adults, always wanted to be with each other and with Billy and Shirley. That's a great family right there. Billy and Shirley have a beautiful, one of a kind love. It will always live on. As parents they have tried to instill in their children the value of a solid, strong marriage. We could all be so lucky. I, can honestly say that I am blessed to have known Billy, dad. I am truly blessed to know the whole family. My husband and I are keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers. With much love, Tonya and Bill Carnes.
