“ Dear Marie and all the Sizemore family, words just can't express how sorry we were to receive the news of Billy passing. There are so many precious memories of the time we were together. We treasure them all. Especially that wonderful smile. We are so sorry that circumstance prevents us from being there but please know you are in our hearts. May our Lord hold you close during the days ahead we love you and will see you as soon as we are back in Florida. With love Tony, Wendy and the Carolina crowd.
