“ Missing you everyday. It's hard not being able to talk to you everyday. I think of you all the time. Missing those conversations we had. I'll never forget them words to said to me before boring the plane on Aug 3rd. You said " Your the best daughter that a father could ever have". And I said Your the best dad that I could ever have. It brought tears to my eyes . Cause I didn't know if I was going to make it before something happened to you . But I'm so blessed that I got to spend the last 10 days of your life with you. Love & miss you dad. Love you forever & always. Deb

“ One thing I've dreamed of since having my children is hoping they get to grow up having a papaw like I had. My papaw was a solid man. I'm sure everyone who had a relationship with him looked up and wanted to be like he was. I know I sure did. His slick comebacks which thankfully my sister took over that job :) so now I get to see him thru her jokes and stuff. My sons didn't get to meet him but emery did and bob adored little emery rose. Annie has been your sidekick since you left KY and for her I'm so grateful that she took care of you for all these years. I'll cherish all the memories at the lake on the house boat, air boats in Florida, and wouldn't you know every time we went out on the boat we broke down!!! But spending quality time with you was my all time favorite. Fly like an eagle papaw, I'll see you on the other side. Forever and always - the best grand daughter you ever had ;) xoxoxo

He loved Emery so much . He would always ask how she was doing and if she was with me so he could talk to her. He got the biggest kick out of her. I wish he could if seen Memphis & Levi. But at least they were both born on the 21st but just different months. He just adored them babies.

“RIP to the one and only "Weekend Daddy"! I love witnessing your "Gypsy" lifestyle, love for woman, cars, motorcycles, and boats. My fondest memories are riding on the back of your Harley at poker runs/Biketoberfest in Daytona, boating at the lakes in KY, riding on the airboat at the springs in FL but most of all listening to you BS everyone you came in contact with. Cheers to the carefree life you lived on this earth that most would be envious to live. I hope your next life is just adventurous, encounter as many woman there as you did here that would "make a bulldog snap a chain" as you would say. As you and I used to laugh and joke about, I wish I could be there to give you the play by play about how many are coming "out of the woodwork"! Love Always, your Sidekick

Annie, as I sit and think of Dad over the last few days, I can't help but think of you as well. You were his better half and pray you find peace sooner than later. I know you two created great memories over the last 20ish years (I lost track) and his health cut that short way too soon. Everytime I would see you two together, I knew he was the love of your life and never thought I would see Dad settle down but you changed that. He obviously loved you as well. When his health began to decline, your love for him never wavered and you cared for him til the end. As the end came near, I witnessed just how much you meant to him and I hope you find peace knowing just how much he loved you and needed you. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your kindness, loving him unconditionally and caring for him til the end!

“ The best part of you being my dad, is that you were so much more than that. You were a comedian with the best jokes. You were a strong man with a strong personality. You were a jack of all trades and still remembered the names of all my friends who admired you. My friends always told me I had the coolest dad. Most importantly, you were more than just a dad. You were the best father a daughter could have asked for.

You started my love for horses. You always took Debbie & I to the race track when we were little. Even as teenagers, you kept us involved with the race horses. Showing us everything we needed to do to keep them happy & healthy. Summers at the track were the best. Once you fully retired from that, you went on to teach us how to paint...lol. Not my favorite job but I've carried that experience with me to this day. You always said, never pay someone for something you can do yourself. As we got older and started our own families we never really spent much time together. I always enjoyed going riding with you on your harley! Best times were at Daytona bike week. The last two years have been the hardest for me, there were things I couldn't get passed but in the last few weeks of your life , I had to let those things go. I was glad I was able to speak to you but regret I couldn't see you one last time. Mom needed me and Debbie took care of you. I hope when you arrived at the gates of heaven, all your family, including William was there to welcome you. Rest easy dad, until we meet again.

I will love and miss you every day of my life. However, the thing I think about most, is how grateful I was to have had the experience of you as a father and as a dad. Love you, Punkin

“ Bobby was one of my favorite uncles, when I was a teenager with no direction he let me work with him painting part time. We always went to the motorcycle races and hill climbs. One day he said you like this 40 Ford don't you I said yea she's a beautiful car and he gets out and said drive it I said I be never driven a clutch vehicle before and the crazy guy said it's like ridding a bike I said right after a couple of times working the clutch he said see you catch in quick. I later bought a 64 GTO and had no problems with the clutch. I helped him clear some property at Nolin Lake and said if I ever wanted to use it I was welcome to he gave me a key. I had a lot of fun with my uncle and he will be deeply missed I'm sure.

“ My dad was an amazing man. He was so loved by many across the states . When you met him you would never forget him. He would make you laugh until your ribs hurt. I can bet that everyone who knew him had the best adventures with him and could tell what a great experience they had with him. And they would never forget it. He was the best dad & papaw to me & my girls ever. Dad & me were alot alike and had the same interest. And yes i can pop them one liners out just as fast as he could. He was my strength, and guided me down the right path in life. I worked with him on the track & in painting. I will miss him dearly & he will always be in my heart. Rest Easy Dad . You are at peace now. And now your up there with the good ole boys. Love you Deb
