“ I met Bee at the Altoona Methodist Church when she was active in our Food Bank. We realized we were neighbors, living across from each other, across the cow pasture. When I would visit with her she talked about her chidhood and growing up here in central Florida. She was very fond of her cat and told me about some of his antics. We both enjoyed watching the new calves play in the pasture and were aware when any cow was in trouble. She will be greatly missed.
