“Brad was truly a wonderful caring person. Always happily smiling and ready to help a friend in need. He was an ems at some point in his life. Absolutely Wonderful person! Willing to help anyone hole heartedly. Always making me and wanting to see everyone around him smile. I've known Brad for about 10 years, as I met him during employment at McDonald's, when he was a manager, as well as his twin brother, Chad. Heaven most definitely gained a beautiful wonderful Angel. You will be missed Brad, I love you and carry you in my heart forever.

“ I truly can not imagine losing a child & there are no words to make the sadness & anger go away. I will remember all of the fun times we all had (Brad, Chad, & Danny) growing up on Pine Island together. Swimming in the canal, building forts, & actually getting our own tree house to play in at your house, remember guys!!! :) Brad, I will always remember how lucky I was to have known you & had the time I did with you, even though it was not nearly enough. You are a truly great guy that I am proud to call my friend. Sincerely,
Kory

“ Brad was one of the most amazing people I knew. He loved with his whole heart, he worked like there were not enough hours in the day. One of his mottos was why put off something that you can get done today so that tomorrow is ruined. He had a very close circle of friends, and made an impact on their lives every single day. I just say where he played a practical joke on a girl at work and she found it just yesterday. His zest for life is not put out just because he is in Heaven. He will continue to show us that he is still around in his own ways. He will be missed by many, and I am not going to lie I cry at the mere thought of him not being here. I want to call him and talk to him but I can't. I look up to the sky and try to say what I am feeling but it's just not enough. I question why God did this or allowed this to happen, and I know that Brad wouldn't want me to question God. I try to think of the positive of this and I just can't think of any. I don't have the answers that I need but as God is my witness I will find them out. I will hold someone accountable for this senseless death. My brother would not only have given you his shirt off his back, he would have given you his last $1.00 he would have also gone into debt to help someone out. I am rambling but for now I just want the world to know that my Brother Brad Morgan was an amazing man !! ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ I will always remember the boys as eighth grade characters, full of creative energy and quick with a smile or laugh. Brad will be missed by his many friends and loved ones, a light dimmed far too soon. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Brad's passing. He was way to young. We enjoyed watching him grow up out here on the island and playing with our children. He always seemed to be happy and we had a hard time telling him and his twin brother apart. Rest in peace.
