As much as we all will miss her, and we all will very much, at the same time, I'm happy for her. Happy that she is reunited with Tonya, who I know she has never stopped grieving over these past 23 years. She's reunited with her sweet sister Aunt Charlene and the heart of our family- Gramma Taylor and Grampa Taylor.

Aunt Brenda , just like Gramma and Grampa, wrote songs and sang about heaven and Jesus, her whole life, and just like a beautiful song she wrote called " At the Masters Table" she gets to meet in person, our Lord and Savior. I know she's smiling, I know she's happy, I know she's hugging necks. And I know we will see her again one day. I love you Aunt Brenda.
