“ Brian moved into our little "Snooze and Scoot RV Campground " around beginning of 2020. He was as most in a new living area are, "retreated within himself". Not many friends at first I got to talking with Brian in the early morning as I was on Dog Walking Duty every morning. Got to know Brian a little, as he was having some problems with his car and I drove him to DRs And Procedure appointments and Drove him to Orlando's airport and to other personal appointments in Tampa although gruff in his talk and mannerisms he had a heart of gold underneath. He had been trying to help this lady with her alc/drug problems. Brian lived month to month just like most of us, but he went into debt because of her and just lately paid up. His Cancer was a constant but he stayed positive. He had big time problems with his handicaps but would work hard to cover any dropsies so no one would notice. He became a friend and with all our problems my wife and I need all we can get. We keep looking at his trailer waiting for him to stop over as he did almost everyday. He will be missed. But Brian is with God now. Lucky Dog. 🙏💜🌹🌸🌹🌻💜

I'm sad to hear of Brian's Passing, we had just talked a week prior... He told me he was doing well, 😞 guess he didn't want me to worry ...
Condolences to ALL who loved Him...
