“ Dear Rose & Wolfcale Family, I wanted to give your family my condolences. I hate that our enemy death has taken Mr. Wolfcale. I am so very sorry for your loss. I hope you have peace and receive the comfort only God can provide. I have found to be soothing Isaiah 25:8 reads: "He will swallow up(or do away with) death forever....". That verse reminds me soon the ones we love will never leave us. My deepest sympathy. Winter

“ Dear Ms. Rose & Family, I wanted to give your family my condolences. I hate that our enemy death has taken this loved one. I am so very sorry for your loss. I have found the following verses to be soothing to our neighbors going through very difficult times such as you are experiencing. Notice they speak of death being no more: 1 Corinthians 15:26...'And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.' Additionally, Isaiah 25:8 reads: "He will swallow up(or do away with) death forever....". This one helps me most:(Acts 24:15) And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. I wish you peace and comfort at this trying time. My deepest sympathy. Winter Gainey

“ To the family of Brian Wolfcale. With deepest sympathy our heart goes out to each of you as you grieve the loss of your son, father, brother, brother-in-law, grandfather, and uncle. It is the choice of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as to the timing of ones passing. For reasons we may never understand. May your faith help heal your broken hearts so you can find the joy to celebrate the 58 years what was shared with you. Like the bible states "Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day, teach a man to fish and you feed him for life". My guess is the Lord needed one heck of a fisherman to make sure no one else goes hungry. God Bless. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Rick and Jan Hayden

“ Brian will always be missed!! He was a character to say the least!! His funny Witt and his surprising inventions will always be remembered! When Brian gave, he gave his all! Never expecting any thing in return! He put many to shame with his fishing skills and common sense logic!! One could not even catch a rock but Brian would have a cooler full! Having that big as day smile on his face! Stating some day you will figure it out!! May you rest in peace and you will always be in the hearts of the ones that love you!!
