“ Judy, We send our love and prayers to you and your family Sonny will forever hold a special place in our hearts. He always had a big smile and big hug for me every time I saw him and his expression of concern for me when I was going through hard times touched me greatly. Gary and I will miss him but God truly has a great angel with him now. He is smiling down on all of us now. We love you and are here for you if you need us. Gary & Kathie Wygant Osteen, FI

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Although I have not seen either of you in several years, I still have a fond memory of the wedding. I know that God is giving you strength and comfort through all of this. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ Dear Mrs. Robbins & Family, My name is Winter. I am a volunteer in the community offering my neighbors comfort from the Bible to cope with their loved ones passing and thier grief. I have personally lost, it is a truly painful experience. Maybe you can gain comfort as I did. I talked about my feelings and memories of my greatgrandma. Other have found writing down their thoughts and feelings have helped. The main thing that really got me through was prayer and reading the following verses: John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:4. I know that it takes time and grieving last differnt amounts of time for each individual. I hope that these things help you all as much as they did me. Sincerely, Winter Gainey
