

Burree "Breezy" Eggert Owens

January 1, 1942 - January 6, 2022

Burree "Breezy" Eggert Owens died in her home, after a brief illness, surrounded by her husband and 2 sons.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dr. C. Lee and Bette Eggert.

Breezy was survived by her husband of 52 years, Elliott. Two sisters: Leslie Holloway of Orlando & Anne Williams of Chiefland. One brother: Lee Eggert of Brandon.

Breezy & Elliott were married in 1969 and together they had 2 sons: Roger (Theresa) Owens and Randy (Ashley) Owens. 6 grandchildren: Summer Douglas (Zach), Lindsey Fragale (Sam), Andrew Owens, Jake Owens, Trevor Owens, & Camden Owens. Two great grandchildren: Rowyn & Walker Douglas.

She was a realtor who started her career in real estate in 1982 and maintained that career until 2021.

There will be a memorial service on January 29th at 10:00am, at First Presbyterian Church in Eustis, FL. Burial will follow the service in the memorial gardens behind the church. A reception will follow in our gathering place adjacent to the church sanctuary.

“Breezy was a force to be reckoned with. I remember the good ole' days at Vic's Embers when Breezy was full of anecdotes and the laughter would fill the room. May the outpouring of love from friends comfort Elliott and the family. "What we have once enjoyed we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us." - Helen Keller

“Breezy was a special person, we became co-workers and fast became good friends, I loved to hear her tell stories of when she first started Real Estate, we shared plenty of good laughs and great moments. Breezy you are missed, until we meet again pretty lady.

“Breezy would always light up a room with her beautiful smile and piercing blue eyes, she was strikingly gorgeous and not to be overlooked. We had so many good times working together and we both always enjoyed our "monthly wine downs". She liked to have fun and laugh, and she got a kick out of making YOU laugh. I loved Breezy and I will miss her, she was a one-of-a-kind lady and I will always hold a place for her in my heart. See ya again one day pretty lady
