“ Dear Jean, Sharron, Michael, Cathy, Pat and Kelley; I was deeply saddened to hear of Carl's passing. He certainly lived a good long life, well lived, and well loved. He was such a special man, larger than life but gentle and caring. He had a way of making you feel that what you had to say was worth listening to. I can't help but smile when I think of him and all the laughs the filled the room because of his sense of humor. He's playing basketball with Dad now, for sure! May God Bless You, with great memories as you find your way through your time of grief. With love and prayers, Karen

“ Sad news...Janice and I would like to extend our prayers to the whole coffin clan. Jack finally has a big man in the middle to join his team upstairs. I can still close my eyes and see my parents playing bridge with Carl and Jean.....I would hang around play the dummy after the bidding. What fun!! The best part was seeing Mrs. Coffey she still is the best looking of all my parents friends. Love to all, the memories will last a life time, steve and Janice

“ Thank you all for your wonderful thoughts. They brought sadness but at the same time joy. They bring back such wonderful memories of all of us being together in our younger years. We were never left out of the fun they all had together. Our parents have left a great legacy of family strength and values. It shows in your condolences. And yes I would give anything to see the "boys all playing ball together again" Thank you for your love. Patrick Coffey proud son of "BIG CARL" - "The richest man in town"
