

Carl Peterson

March 21, 1957 - June 22, 2020

Carl Vance Peterson (63) of Deland, FL went to be with his Lord in his home on June 22, 2020 surrounded by his loving family. He was born March 21, 1957 in Deland and was a lifelong resident there.

Carl is survived by his dear wife of 45 years, Cindy; his children, Cheredy Ferdelman (Bill) of Orange City, FL, Cara Roberts of Deland, FL, and Cady Destefano (Mark) of Orange City, FL. He was also blessed with grandchildren, Logan, Paxtyn, Cheyenne, Lance, Peytyn, Rhett, Lane, Jayden, Mason, Aleah and Billy and great grandchild, Elias. Carl is also survived by his siblings, Sue Herring (Rick), Kathy Peterson and Linda Peterson, along with many nieces, nephews and heart-adopted children. He was preceded in death by his parents, Marshall and Irene Cannon Peterson and his two brothers, Bobby and Eugene Peterson.

Carl was a block/brick mason spending his career building and having a family business resulting in the construction of several custom homes as well as commercial work. He was a long time member of Calvary Full Gospel in DeLeon Springs, FL. He also an avid softball player, well known within the Deland Softball leagues for 30 years. In recent years, Carl discovered a finer artistic side of himself doing oil paintings, having created from his heart and mind over 100 canvases. He will be also be affectionately remembered as "Dad," "My Man," and "Papa" because in all of his activities, he truly excelled as one of the best husbands, fathers and grandfathers anyone could ever have. Even in his days of sickness, his bed had an "open bed policy" for grandkids and family. He has left beautiful memories and will be greatly missed.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Umatilla, FL.
