“ To the Philipbar family, There are so few words that can be of comfort to you all at this time. Your father's pride and joy was his family and to have had you all there as he began his new journey must have brought him such peace. Use the time to strengthen the bonds between you, to honor his love for family and keep him in your hearts. "A truly rich man is one whose children run into his arms when his hands are empty." All our love to you, The Cully family
