Carlene was my sister. I tried most of my life to be like her. The best thing about her was her beautiful voice. Her singing brought joy to many many people. She had a pure alto voice and sang gospel wonderfully. The comforting thought that I have is that she is singing with the angels and singing songs that the angels cannot sing. Her faith in God was very deep and she was a witness on how a Christian woman should be. I will miss her all the days of the rest of my life.

“ I knew Carlene through her work at Hospice. She was a lovely lady, very kind and compassionate toward the patients and families. She was supportive of all of us fellow employees. She will be missed.
