Obituary of Carlisle Yeager

Carlisle "Dutch" Yeager, 86, of Fruitland Park passed away at Hospice House in the Villages from an illness. Dutch was born August 30, 1925 in Lansing, Michigan and has been a resident of this area for over 20 years. He was the son to the late George and Susie Yeager. In 1953 he married Mildred and they were married for 49 years. After her passing he married Della Yeager, who survives. Also surviving: a brother, Ken Yeager (Elaine) of Summerfield; sons: Carl Yeager (Pat) of Rockford, Illinois, Kurt Yeager of Cookeville, Tennessee, and Bob Henning (Kary) of South Bend Indiana. Dutch was in the second wave of soldiers landing in France in World War 2 on D-Day and was wounded in that battle. He had a colorful life and enjoyed lots of hobbies, including fishing, hunting, boating, camping, metal locating, and was a great cook. Because he led such full life he had the greatest stories to tell. Dutch was a person that made friends everywhere he went, and his smile was contagious. He will be missed by many people, but when they think of him they will smile. The family would like to thank the staff of Promise Hospital, and Hospice for making Dutch's last days so comfortable.
