

Carol Cohen

May 8, 1944 - January 30, 2021

Carol Cohen, 76, passed away Saturday, January 30, 2021 at her home in The Village of Pennecamp with her family by her side. She was born in Brooklyn, NY in 1944 to Irving and Lillian Stockman and later moved to Monticello, NY, where she met her childhood sweetheart and later husband, Bob (Robert) Cohen.

Carol graduated from Boston University with a B.A. in English Literature in 1966. She worked as high school English teacher in Massachusetts for several years and had a passion for doing whatever she could to help students grow and be all they could be. She paused her career to raise her two beloved children and later returned to teaching after they were grown. The family lived in the woods of New Hampshire until Carol and Bob moved to The Villages in 2010.

Carol cherished spending time with the family and friends and surrounded herself with photos, books, art, magnets, and other treasured items that reminded her of special moments with loved ones. At The Villages she could often be found clipping trees and tending to the flowers in her yard. She also enjoyed traveling, golfing, talking to neighbors, petting dogs, and walking the Pennecamp Loop.

She will be greatly missed. Carol is survived by her loving husband Bob, daughters, Susanne and Diane Cohen, sister, Mona Williams, and grandson, Jonah Gottesman. A private memorial service will be held on Thursday, February 4, 2021 at 11:00 AM and shared via Zoom. A recording will be saved for those not able to join us. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Carol's name to Moffitt Cancer Center, in Tampa, Florida.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Lady Lake, FL. Online condolences may be left at www.BeyersFuneralHome.com

“ Carol lived across the street from us growing up and was a close friend of my older sister Lee. I remember Carol as being beautiful and smart, but most of all being extraordinarily gentle and kind to everyone she encountered. I'm sure those qualities persisted throughout her life. Judy Pollack “ Ever since Carol and I chatted at the holiday party at Allan and Stephanie's, we realized how much we had in common, in our love of dogs. When she visited New England and stayed with me, we had such wonderful times. At night we would sit around the table and chat and sip sherry and laugh until silly hours. Her first visit was days after Carter came to us. She felt a special affinity to him, and he always greeted her so much enthusiasm! I felt so very close to Carol; she was one of my very best friends and I will always remember all that she did for me. May you be comforted.

“ *Dear Carol. You will be greatly missed. You have been much more than a neighbor to me. The 10-15 minutes chats we had at the end of the driveway added up to so much more. Sharing family and trial and tribulation details. We covered a lot of ground.
And my boys Jean Luc and Nico loved you dearly. Nico took to you the first second he met you which never happen with anyone else. He knew what a great person you were. Every time we would go out for a walk they would look in your direction hoping you were out too. I know you are in a better place and I look forward to meeting again. Until then, Love, Walt.*
