“Mildred, my heart aches for you and your family. I remember many years ago when you and I would discuss our children and pray for them. Just a few months ago when Donna came up for a visit she reminded me of the Sunday night you led her to the Lord. I pray He will give you peace.

“Carol Ann was a wonderful teacher and friend. My daughter loved learning French from Carol Ann, when she was very young. Carol Ann always had a smile and a kind and gentle spirit. She always spoke about her children and grandchildren with much love and admiration. We will miss her sweet spirit but know, without a doubt, that she is now in the presence of her Lord and God.

“ The world lost a beautiful person on September 15th. Although this disease ravaged her body for over 30 years it never touched her faith and testimony for the Lord. On the contrary, she would always praise the Lord for the blessings she did have, and, believing that God had a purpose for everything, she prayed that her struggles would lead others to the Lord or to a closer walk with Him. I can just see the Lord welcoming her with arms wide open and saying "Well done, thou good and faithful servant". Carol never gave up and continued her fight against this disease right up to the end. Even though she could hardly speak I will always cherish her final words with me. You, the family, can be very proud of her. She is a special person who will live in our hearts forever and we know that we shall be together again one day. Carol Ann and I are best friends forever. My love and prayers are with you.
