“ Carol and I were friends in Vero Beach. The day we moved to Orlando, she picked up our two kids and took care of them for hours. Our Trish and Teri were close in age but son John was a baby. I was so gratefully, I never forgot her help. We lunched together and kept in touch by mail when she was in Sneads Ferry. I knew when she married Al and her happiness. I really treasured our friendship. Thinking of her beloved children-you were her reason for living!
