

Carol Ruth Morgan

March 25, 1946 - April 9, 2026

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Carol Ruth Clark Morgan, 80, who left this world peacefully at her home in Leesburg, Florida, on Thursday, April 9th, 2026.

Born on March 25th, 1946, at the Mayport Naval Base in Jacksonville, Florida, Carol was the beloved daughter of Robert Nesbitt Clark, Sr. and Ethel Pomar Clark. A gifted and creative spirit from an early age, she often delighted her parents with her poetry and piano playing. She excelled academically at College Street Elementary and Coffee County High School in Manchester, Tennessee, before attending the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. Carol later built a successful career in banking in Chattanooga.

Manchester is also where Carol met the love of her life, John Dennis Morgan. They married on March 19th, 1966, and shared sixty beautiful years of partnership, devotion, and family.

Carol is survived by her husband, John Dennis; her son, John Robert Morgan (Cyndi); her grandchildren, Jessica Morgan Bowen (Jacob), John Alex Morgan (Haley), and Brandon Mitchell Morgan; seven great grandchildren; and her sister, Patricia Clark Moore (Bill). She is also cherished by many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and her siblings, Robert Nesbitt Clark, Jr., Shirley Marie Burrow, and Calvin Richard Clark.

A service to honor Carol's life will be held at:
