“ I would say one of Carol's greatest accomplishments was raising a very godly daughter, Suzanne, who is my friend. May the family find peace knowing the incredible peace she felt as she crossed over Jordan to the promised land.

“ Carol has left a loving and lasting memory to all who knew her. She was the embodiment of a Christian lady. She has been a model for all of us to follow. I had to ask Carol for quite a few recipes at Walter's request as her potato salad, lemon meringue pie, kale salad, peach jam and fired fish were just the best ever. Although she will be missed, it is a comfort to know she is in our Lord's home, watching over all of us.

“ I fondly recall Carol and the time we were able to work together for Aramark. She was truly a professional and a fine lady. I am pleased to read of her strong faith and work with the church. She should be a welcome addition to heaven.
