“ I just saw this notice on Carole’s passing. She will always live in my heart as a funny crazy lady “ crazy Carole” as I affectionately called her. She was my manager at Conn General from 1974-1977. Those were great fun filled days and somehow we managed to get the work done! She will always be remembered with a smile and much love. My sincere condolences to dear Tom and Christopher. May the Lord Jesus comfort you with His promise of eternal life .

“ Carole was one of my very best friends and I miss her very much. We shared so many things in common. Over the many years we lived in The Villages, Fl across the street from one another we shared thoughts, experiences and the love of animals. She cat sat for Smokey whenever Jim & I needed her. Rest in peace my dear friend. Dianne

“ We lived across from Carole and Tom and always remember Carole baking all the cookies at Christmas for neighbors. She loved her Italian heritage and their church. We miss them and can not attend the celebration as we will be on a cruise. Blessings and peace to you Chris and your Dad. John and Ellen Danich
