“ Bill and I often spoke of the Lawlor "Matriarch" who passed many, many family stories to any of those who would listen. Caroline had a memory everyone wishes they had and she shared hers lovingly with her family. Bill and I just loved visiting her and listening to all. We often said she should have written all the family history down so all could share. We loved her dearly and thought of her often. We will sorely miss our family historian and our dear cousin. Rest in Peace beautiful lady and enjoy the reunion with family you are having in Heaven. We will carry you forever in our hearts. Love you Caroline. Until we meet again. Love, Cousins Bill and Carol
