“ We have very fond memories of your mother, Shawnes go back more years still and they are all special. I had just met Shawne and soon after found myself looking for a place to rent. lo and behold your mom gave me the upstairs of the very house we live in to rent. We will often think back on those days and remember when. :-) She was a sweet-spirited person and we liked her a lot. We were sorry to hear of her passing.
May the grace of God be with you and your family as you now travel down this passage in time.

We didn't get to see her often, but when we did, she welcomed us with the most beautiful of smiles. Bill and I will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers during the most difficult time.
