“ I thought I had done this, and just realized I had not - so sorry for the delay. My heart goes out to you Andy, Mitch and Gene. Having lost my mother this year to dementia, I am familiar with the pain of this, and the difficulty of facilitites. Despite your grief, I hope you are able to breathe deeply and freely now, knowing she thinks clearly now, and loves unconditionally. I have fond memories of her and Linda at Granny Velma's - singing and laughing. I wish you that same joy. Blessings of love to you. Debbie
