“ *Soldier, rest! Thy warfare o'er Dream of fighting fields no more: Sleep the sleep that knows not breaking, Morn of toil, nor night of waking. --Sir Walter Scott, The Lady of the Lake (canto I) We follow a pathway that has no end as we travel through life day by day.
Together with those who are dear to our hearts and are there by our side, come what may But sometimes a loved one must travel ahead for reasons that aren't always clear. And we're left behind to continue along, missing one who is no longer here. And while it may seem that the pathway has stopped, it merely has rounded a bend, And our loved one goes on to a much brighter place down the pathway that has no end. May this help you in your time of need and with the healing process. We love you Kathy!!*

“ Carter, you made us laugh until our sides ached with your ever present sense of humor. Now our hearts are aching with your loss, but I am so thankful that you and Kathy found each other and grateful for happy moments we all shared. I will always remember July 4th, dominoes, the big gulp and feeding the gulls. It is good to know you are watching over us from above. Godspeed.

“ Manny is so happy we were able to visit with you guys when we went to FL. He has been friends with Carter for over 35 years & can't believe he has passed. We have been talking a lot about his many memories and that is what helps us all get through these times of loss. Know that we will continue to keep you in our prayers. I have to tell you after talking to you today I left hobby lobby to find a penny on the ground. I know Carter is looking down on us and letting us know her is at peace! Hugs & love!

I will always remember his sense of humor how he had us all laughing at the 4th of July Party in Cominicut from the time we arrived till we left at the end of the night.....I laughed so much that day and night my face cheeks were sore but thats what made Carter Special!!!! He had a unique way of showing us all laughter is the best medicine for life!!!!
