“ My Dearest Aunt Margie and Sir Pockets.....Uncle Cass would have it no other way, he loved you both so much, he passed away on my birthday, I thought of him all day. There are few in the family that were as kind to me as he was, he was a good man. I thank him and you for talking with me sometimes and bringing up my spirits in what has become a very bad year, I only wish for you the best, you took such good care of Uncle Cass - always, I so wanted to see him and you, but it was not to be. Uncle is at peace with his brothers and parents now, I know his spirit will live on, and I know he will make sure you and Pockets are just fine. I wish i could cry with you, I wish i could meet you, Uncle used to also call me Doobie when i was little living with Gramma and Grampa in Umatilla, he would sit me down and we would peel an orange and eat it, or he would show me something I did not know. I thank God I knew him and I thank God you and him had many years together and remember when you finally got Pockets, I do, how happy you all were. I love you. I love Pockets., and I love my Uncle who went out and fought a war for Our Country, God Bless Him and God Bless You Aunt Margie. All I can give you is my love.....
