

Catherine Tyn Brown

September 25, 2021

It is with heavy hearts and great sadness that the family announces the passing of Catherine Tyn Brown at her home in Duluth, Ga. on September 25, 2021. She was born in Philadelphia, PA to Kasian and Mary Tyn. Catherine was preceded in death by her husband, Robert J. Brown, Sr., her son, Robert J. Brown, Jr., and her parents. Those continuing to celebrate her life are her daughter, Sandra M. Brown of Duluth, GA , daughter Natalie (Bob) Watt of Lexington, KY and son Douglas (Paula) Brown of Westerville, OH . Cathy was a devoted wife and mother but also blessed many communities and churches with her talents as a violinist. She was a member of First United Methodist Church in Parkersburg, WV, where she was active in its choir and music programs. As a young woman, Cathy attended the Curtis Institute of Music and later served as concertmistress in orchestras in Texas, West Virginia and Florida. She taught violin privately, taught stringed instruments to elementary and high school students in Wood County, WV, and conducted the orchestra in several Parkersburg, WV public schools. An avid gardener, Cathy belonged to gardening clubs in Delaware, Texas and West Virginia. She loved to read and followed current events and Atlanta Braves baseball. During her final years she enjoyed painting and drawing. Never one to seek the spotlight, Cathy devoted her life to loving, teaching, and caring for her husband, family, their various pets over the years, her friends and students. Pursuant to Cathy's wishes, there will be no visitation and a private burial will be held in Bushnell, FL on October 12, 2021. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to a charity of one's choice.
