“ Will miss you Cathy, we were friends in Brooklyn Park when we were young and lost touch. Years later we reconnected in FL and although we did not see one another often it was always a joy to see you and Jerry mostly at BPHS Reunions. I am blessed to have known such a sweet, kind and caring lady. Rest with the angels and your loved ones. One day I hope we will laugh like young girls again in that beautiful place, dear friend.

“ Jerry, I am so sorry for your loss. I am so thankful that Cathy and I had a chance to re-connect after 40 plus years. At least we had the last few years of catching up which I am eternally thankful for. I pray that she is now in peace and suffering has commenced. You and your family will be in our prayers. Love Dale
