“ Dear Morgan Family: I read about the loss of Mrs.Morgan in the obituary today and I wanted to extend my sympathy, as humans we want to live, and we want to enjoy life with those we love, it is only natural that we yearn to see our dead loved ones again, so it's comforting to now that the Bible teaches that most people who have died will be reurrected. The Bible promises this at John 5:28,29 which in part reads:"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,". Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.

“ Kay Morgan was a person who brought joy to everyone she encountered: her family, her students, and her friends. A woman of great intellect, she was generous with her love and quick to find humor in every situation. I will always remember her lovely laughter and beautiful smile. Sue, Rob, Jen, and Bud, I send you my deepest sorrow for your loss. I know she graced your lives with unending support and affection and you will continue to carry that with you always. --Debra Ravitz Sheldon
