“ Tom, Kristin and Family, My heart goes out to all of you. I worked with CeCe for many years at West. Kristin you are the same age as my oldest daughter and your mom and I would share stories of our lovely daughters, always ending in laughter. It is my pleasure to have known her. Take care and God bless you all.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As a West marketer, I frequently worked with CeCe in the past - and it was a pleasure. She had an infectious smile (just like the photo here). She was was smart, funny, and dedicated to her work. In her memory I will donate today, and pray we soon find a cancer cure.

“ To: Tom, Kristen and Family, So sorry to hear about CeCe. You all are in prayers today and for the days ahead. I worked with CeCe for many years at West Publishing or Thomson Reuters. She was a amazing lady, mother and wife, who loved life with that bright smile of hers. She will be missed by many. May you all find peace and serenity.

“ Tom and girls, You know how much I thought of Cece, I'm remembering the good times like when she lived in WBL. One day she called me to come over to help her get her car started. When I got there I found that she parked it in DRIVE. That's why it didn't start. and the day she and Tom asked me to come into the kitchen to talk. She said they were arguing about whether I should be her maid (man) of honor or if I should be Tom's best man. I voted for best man and was proud to be a part of their wedding. I told Tom the other day "you know we both loved CeCe" we shared some tears that night on the phone. My love goes out to all of you dear friends. Jake

“ There are no words to express how deeply sorry we are for the loss of Cece. Our world is a better place for having her in it - such strength she showed in her battle against an awful opponent! Our hearts are hurting for Tom, Kristin, Heidi, Kris, Liz and all the rest of her loving family. Our thoughts are with you.

“ Tom, Kristen and Family My deepest sympathies on the passing of CeCe. Many of us old "westies" will miss her. I'm so glad we were able to go have lunch with her this past summer when she was here. We have many great memories of golfing with her, parties and just the pleasure to have worked with her. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time and I will certainly try to make the memorial back here in MN.
