Obituary of Charlene Hargest

Charlene Hargest, age 72, died peacefully with her husband at her bedside at Cornerstone Hospice in The Villages on Monday, August 1, 2016. She was a wonderful wife, beloved sister and cherished aunt. Charlene fought a ten year brave battle with cancer. She is survived by her loving husband of 53 years, John (Jack) Hargest; her brother, Ben Proctor Jr.; Sisters-In-Laws, Mary Proctor, Pat Moore and Michele Benjamin; Brother-In-law, Harold Moore and many nephews and nieces and great nephews and great nieces. Charlene was born in Providence, RI and later moved to Baltimore, MD with her family. She and her husband, Jack, made their home in Olney, MD where they resided for 30 years before retiring to the beautiful community of Harbor Hills in Lady Lake, FL. Charlene attended the University of Maryland and worked as an office manager for several dental practices. She was a member of the Maryland Mayflower Society and served on many community committees raising funds for local charities. She enjoyed travel especially to countries with different cultures. Her favorite activities were gardening and playing bridge. The cancer never kept Charlene from living life to its fullest and her spirits were always high. She was a great lady and she will be missed by family and friends and will live on in our hearts forever. Interment will be at at Moreland Memorial Park Cemetery in Baltimore, MD, where other family members have been laid to rest. A date for the Memorial Service has not yet been determined.
