

Charles Bryan Blaisdell

August 4, 1957 - July 28, 2017

Charles "CB" Blaisdell, 59, was born in Kalkaska, Michigan August 4, 1957, but spent his childhood and adult life between Michigan and Florida. He resided in Webster, Florida and passed away on July 28, 2017. CB enjoyed taking long rides in his jeep, going on the river in the airboat, spending time with his family and grandchildren and always enjoyed a good time with his friends. He was a good, honest man, a hard worker and devoted to his family. He was an over-sized heavy long haul truck driver and always strived for the best.

He was predeceased by daughter: Lindsay (Blaisdell) Doci and his father: Arvid J. Blaisdell.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Blaisdell; son: Charles "Bryan" Blaisdell, Jr. of Webster, FL; three grandchildren: Alysa, Kyan and Cole; mother: Mae Frances Davis of Tampa, FL; step-mother: Evelyn A. Blaisdell of Kalkaska, MI; brothers: Arvid J. Blaisell, Jr. of Ocala, FL, LJ Earegood of Ocala, FL, Robbin Earegood of Tampa, FL; and sisters: Judy (Blaisdell) Stuck (Steven) of Kalkaska, MI and Lawana Blaisdell of Tampa, FL; and several nieces and nephews.

A "Celebration of Life" will be announced at a later date. He was loved and will be missed by all those who knew him.

Arrangements entrusted to Purcell Funeral Home, Bushnell, Florida.
