“ Jesse and I just saw this news about Chuck. Jesse still tells funny stories about shenanigans on well sites. Like a truck sliding down a mountain while in reverse. Jesse said only Chuck could do that properly! Lol. He was a delight for sure. Our condolences.

“ When Zac and Kyle were little, Chuck would randomly stop by my house with a Walmart bag. In it, were always toys that made noise. As he was leaving, he would say a grin and a wink, “I also bought them some batteries.” He was super sweet ... with a side of ornery. Heaven gained a good man.

Love,

“ *Chuck and I worked together for many years in the oil and gas industry. He was everything his obituary said and more. He always helped us around the office to get us caught up. Once he took over the filing. It took Jane and I a long time to figure out his filing methods. Needless to say, we didn't let him help again with filing. He was a wonderful and caring gentleman.
