“ Dear Family and Friends of Charles, I have know Charles for about 5 years and worked with him for all of this time at Orange Blossom Hills golf course. During this time I helped train him as a new employee, worked with him as a co-worker and, most recently, worked for him after he was promoted to Assistant Outside Manager. During all of my time working with and for Charles he was a consummate professional, a true gentleman and a joy to be around. From the very beginning of my relationship with Charles I enjoyed his sharp wit, his wonderful manner, his outstanding voice and his kind ways. We became friends immediately and both Mary Lou and I spent many good times with him and his lovely wife Bridgette. I knew Charles had some health problems as we shared some family issues and, while it is with much sadness that he has moved from our living world to be with his maker, I am certain the his passing was God's way to spare him from any health issues in the future. Charles dear friend, Rest In Peace knowing that you made the best of your time with friends and family while you were here with us. You will be with me and Mary Lou as a dear friend in our memories forever. Pete and Mary Lou Chiasson

“ I was glad to see Charles come back so very strong after his heart issues. As I remember the doctors called him a miracle. Now he knows the real miracle. I know he will be missed but that is just for now. I surely have a great hope to see him again, as other family that have gone before. I'm sure Charles would have us to mourn, and then to live. We pray for comfort and healing for the family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Charles' passing. He was my boss and mentor, but more importantly he was my friend. A little known fact was that we shared the same birthday of Sept. 5th and while we didn't speak as often as I would have liked, we usually spoke on that day. He will be missed and hope the family will be comforted that he is in a better place, no doubt teeing off at the most beautiful golf course imaginable.
