Obituary of Charles Packer

Charles Orvis Packer, 73, The Villages, FL, died Tuesday, October 16, 2012 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Charlie was born in Hartford, CT. He graduated from Bulkley High School in Hartford, CT. Thereafter he attended UCONN. After his military service (VI US Army Corp), he was employed by Aetna Life and Casualty Insurance Company in CT for 35 years, retiring as an Assistant Vice President.

He and his wife Judith purchased their home in The Villages, FL, (Jasper Villas) in 2005. Charles enjoyed membership in The Villages Model Railroad Club, The Horse N' Around Club and The More Jazz Club.

Charles with his wife, took pleasure in their travels in the US, Canada, Europe, and the Caribbean. They also enjoyed many years at their home in Ludlow, Vermont. Their Vermont friends, Maine family, and Villages friends gave faithful support during his illness.

Charles is survived by his wife, Judith Clements Packer, many cousins in CT, sisters-in-law, brother-in-law, and many nieces and nephews in Maine, NH, and Nebraska.

Memorial services will be held in February in FL and in the spring in Maine. Memorial donations can be made to The Villages Moffitt Cancer Center

C/O The Villages Regional Hospital, 451 El Camino Real, The Villages, FL 32159.

“ Judy, I have known you and Charlie for about 40 years, and have worked with and for you both at Aetna. He was such a gentle man. Even when I saw him at the airport a few weeks ago, he still had his wonderful smile on his face. He will be truly missed by all who knew him. Roger and I send deepest condolences, dear friend. Love, Marti
