“ Best brother in law. Remember how he did not not like the Pennsylvania winters. Thank you Fred for all the wonderful care for Janet and those wonderful children.

Wonderful godly father and husband who served the Lord joyfully wherever God chose for him, whether flying a plane over the jungle of Liberia, or facilitating the buses for Bayshore Christian School of Tampa. For 66 years of marriage he was lover, supporter and leader in our home! And even in his suffering near the end, was meek and appreciative of the care given him.

Janet, I am very sorry for your loss but very grateful that Fred is with the Lord now. Dotti has shared amazing, beautiful stories with us over the last 20 years about her wonderful parents. You both served the Lord your entire lives and you have been an inspiration to so many, including me and our small group. God bless you!
