

Charles G. Webb

April 29, 1945 - February 26, 2019

Charles G. "Chuck" Webb, Sr., 73 of Summerfield, FL passed away on February 26, 2019 at The Villages Regional Hospital.

Chuck was born on April 29, 1945 in Newark, NJ son of Samuel Clifford Webb and Mae Arlene Marsh Webb. He attended schools in New Jersey before serving proudly in the U.S. Air Force for four years, serving in Alaska for part of that tour. Chuck proudly worked for General Motors in a variety of location for over 25 years, focusing his career on the assembly line building GM vehicles. Chuck and Aileen moved to The Villages in 2002, embarking on a new and different life for them both. For nearly 30 years he was an active part of the American Legion, first in New Jersey then here in Legion Post 347, where he served as a Post officer. Chuck loved spending time with his granddaughter while watching television.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 48 years, Aileen McEvelly Webb. He also leaves a son Charles Webb Jr. (Lisa) of Summerfield, FL, two daughters, Dawn and Laurie Webb both of Summerfield and 5 grandchildren ages 9 months to 17 years. Chuck was a loving and caring husband, father, father-in-law, uncle, neighbor and friend.

A Celebration of his Life, with full military honors by American Legion Post 347, will be held on Saturday March 2, 2019 at 2:00 at the Beyers Funeral Home in Lady Lake. A visitation for family and friends will be held from 1:00 to 2:00. Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Lady Lake, FL. Online condolences may be left at www.BeyersFuneralHome.com
