“ In the 42 years I have known Cheryl I have never heard a mean thing, when she and Billy met we all knew she was off the market! Cheryl exuded love, Billy, Amanda, Adam, Mrs. Marino, Jeff, Greg and Susan, and all family, she loved with all she was, even when we wondered how, now she is at peace in the arms of our Lord. May God help give us all the strength to do what Cheryl wanted, to celebrate her life, but I must say, I will miss you my friend and I will pray that one day I will see you again.

“ I have read James 2:18 countless times. Never have I seen faith lived out like I witnessed with Cheryl. What an amazing legacy as she showed us her faith by her actions. While I will remember her infectious laugh, and her distinctive accent...what I will remember most will be her faith. Billy, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Cheryl, When I was with you in the Hospice Home the other day,I thought of all the things you would be missing. I felt so saddened for your beautiful daughter and her children, your handsome son, and your ever so loving husband, your siblings and of course for the woman who carried you and gave you life. But then it occurred to me how selfish I was in those thoughts. You gave these people much joy and love. They and we all will make it just fine. Oh, it will be a hard road to travel. But that is why God gave us a memory! And for the short time I have been in this family, I am happy to be able to have and made memories with you. God's Blessings will follow your family you have left behind. And you will be ever so missed. Love you forever..... Elaine

“ I first met you when you entrusted the care and education of your precious boy, Adam to me when he was in Preschool at Community Christian School. You always had such a sweet spirit and love for all of God's children. As you have departed this world and are with Jesus in your heavenly home, I think you are probably nurturing and loving all you came in contact with up there as you did here on earth. May God give your family the comfort and peace and a lifetime of wonderful memories to help them adjust and cope.
