

Christina "Nicki" Lightfoot

March 14, 1989 - March 1, 2025

Christina "Nicki" Lightfoot, 35 of Lady Lake passed away on March 1, 2025 surrounded by her family.

Nicki was born in Leesburg, FL and attended local schools. She had a lifelong career in the culinary profession, working long hours as a chef and restaurant manager in the Lady Lake area. Nicki also worked alongside her husband Darius as an electrician in commercial and residential settings. She often spent her day on a ladder pulling wires, installing lights and making connections. She helped wire the Wildwood Middle School, a significant and long-term assignment. Nicki loved animals and filled her home with a variety of them. She was a mom to two cats, a Staffordshire Terrier named Louisa and a bearded dragon named "George". Nicki was a spontaneous and adventurous soul with boundless energy. She and Darius loved hikes in the woods, once spotting a panther in the Ocala National Forest. Kayaking was another enjoyable outdoor activity. They would sometimes hop in the car and, on a whim, set a destination and drive. She would enjoy an occasional "veg day", watching multiple episodes of King of Queens, My Name is Earl and The Andy Griffith Show. She was fascinated by Darius' speed and dexterity as he played at his gaming console. Nicki's memory will always be nearby as Darius can see the tattoo's she designed and completed on him.

Nicki is survived by her husband Darius, parents Lori and Chuck Zinn of Leesburg, brother Jesse Zinn of Leesburg, sister Taylor (Kyle) Coger of Virginia Beach, brother-in-law Pierre Perry of Clermont, grandmother Mae Katherine Lee of Cherry Lake, FL and many nieces and nephews.
