

Christine Peterson Moyer

November 1, 1946 - January 30, 2024

Christine Peterson Moyer of the Villages, Florida passed away on January 30, 2024. Christine was born on November 1, 1946, in Staten Island, New York and was the only child of parents Marion Cox and Albert Peterson. She spent her childhood growing up in New York and New Jersey. Christine completed her education at Penn State University and the University of Michigan where she received a master's degree in public health administration.

Christine met her husband Glendon Moyer when she cared for him after a sport-related injury at Bailey Seton Hospital. They fell in love and were married on December 28, 1969. Seven years later, Christine and Glendon welcomed their only son, Donald Peterson Moyer.

Along with being a wife, mother, and dietician, Christine had a love for animals. She was especially fond of horses and dogs and found joy in nature. She loved to walk daily and participated in many hiking trips. She and her husband went on many cruises and enjoyed traveling the world together. Christine was an avid volunteer and particularly enjoyed her time volunteering with the Marion Therapeutic Riding Association and her church's food pantry.

Christine is survived by her family and friends, including her husband of 54 years Glendon Moyer, her son Donald Moyer, her daughter-in-law Heather Moyer, and her grandson Nickolas Moyer.

The family is appreciative of your care and support at this time. So so sorry for your loss Glen. You had a long loving relationship. So many happy memories to help fill the void losing her leaves. With dementia we lose loved ones before we finally lose them. Bit by bit. Our daughter Kristin, who passed away at 31 had this in her journal. "Remember me when I am gone away, gone where you no longer can touch me by your hand. If you remember me and cry, forget me. If you can't think of me and laugh and smile and tell silly stories of me, I lived in vain". Our thoughts and love are sent your way. Marti Allen Phillips

“ Although we did not know Christine, she was the loving spouse of my Coast Guard Academy '68 classmate, Glen. Linda and I know Glen and Christine went through a lot together and we are greatly saddened by her loss. We urge Glen and their son, and his family, to treasure their memories of her as she takes her rightful place in Heaven, seated by the side of our God and our savior Jesus Christ.

“ Chris walked around the block many times, always with a dog treat in her pocket, and a brief stop to say hello. We enjoyed our dinners together and always laughed about her ABC wine(anything but Chardonnay). She and Glenn were always generous about sharing stories, souvenirs from their many trips,and comparing notes about things we had in common. We will miss her and hope she has eternal peace.
