“ Dear Linda and Scott: We remember Chris well from Poker - he was always the "most gentlemanly" guy at the table. Scott, you came together many times and did a good job at running the football squares. I met both of you again when you helped with a Blood Drive. Dennis and I came to support your efforts - he was able to give blood; My iron too low to give blood so I sat on chair waiting for my husband to finish and you both came up to me and made me feel comfortable and told me I could eat also! As parents you both were more than supportive. I remember Chris going to truck driving school and when he completed course; Scott, you brought a congratulations cake. You stood behind him when he went into dryer vent cleaning and were going to do total vent cleaning together. We are so very sorry for your loss and this very difficult time in life. There are no words to make things better except to say we remember Chris and your family well and our thoughts are with you.

“ We are so happy to have known your son. His shy smile and handsome face will be missed. Rest easier knowing that he was raised to become a respectful, polite and overall just good man and loving father.

With you in spirit.
